A PRESENTATION BY RICH GWALTNEY, OF TRANSITIONS LIFECARE

FEBRUARY 20, 2016 - 1:00 PM

ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

Are you worried about your medical care when you near the end of life?
Are you part of the sandwich generation and dread decisions you may be forced to make? Would you like to make difficult circumstances as easy as possible for your loved ones?

Join us for a presentation on Advanced Directives on Saturday, February 20 at 1:00 PM in the Chapel to learn how to approach these topics. Rich Gwaltney from Transitions LifeCare (formerly Hospice of Wake County) will present practical tips on selecting a healthcare power of attorney and making your wishes known to your loved ones regarding your future medical care.
Adults of all ages are welcome to attend. Please RSVP if you will attend to Margie Best at mwbest@bellsouth.net or 919-303-3830.

THIS EVENT IS SPONSORED AND HOSTED BY THE SENIOR MINISTRY ORGANIZATIONAL TEAM
